II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Constable or other Peace Officer as aforesaid, or for any other Person or Persons apprehending or taking into custody any Person or Persons offending against Law, and whom they lawfully may and ought to apprehend and take into custody, by virtue of his or their Office or Offices, or otherwise lawfully, to convey and take the Person or Persons as apprehended or taken into custody as aforesaid, to any Justice or Justices of the Peace sitting for the said County, and persons in high adjoining County as aforesaid, and the said Constables and other Peace Officers, and all and every other Person or Persons, are hereby authorized, empowered and required in all such Cases to act in all things as if the said Justice or Justices of the Peace were or were resident within the said County to which they respectively belong; and all and every Person or Persons obstructing or hindering the said Constables or other Peace Officers in the Execution of their respective Offices in the said County or Counties adjoining as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby made liable to the same Fines and Penalties for such Obstruction and Hindrance of the said Officers in the Execution of their respective Offices, as if the same had been committed in the County for which the said Constables or other Peace Officers were appointed to act.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Sheriff or Justice of the Peace sitting for any County as aforesaid, or for any Constable or other Peace Officer in Ireland, or for any other Person or Persons lawfully taking into or having in his or their Custody respectively, any Person or Persons offending against Law, and whom he or they may or might lawfully convey to Gaol, or any Place of safe Custody, to convey or take the said Person or Persons to be in custody as aforesaid, into and through any Part or Parts of the said County or Counties to adjoining, in their Way to such Gaol or Place of safe Custody within the County wherein such Officer was done or committed, and all and every Person or Persons escaping from such Custody as aforesaid, or taking or assisting such Escape or Escapes, or releasing such Person or Persons to be in custody as aforesaid, shall be subject to the like Fines and Penalties for such Escape or Escapes, and for such Aid and Assistance to given as aforesaid, and for such Release and Refuges, as if the said Escape or Escapes had happened, or such Aid and Assistance had been given, or such Release or Refuges had been made, in the County wherein such Officer was done or committed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace sitting for any County as aforesaid, to act in all such at any Place within any City or Town being a County of itself, and situate within, surrounded by, or adjoining to any such County at large; and that all and every such Act and Acts, Matters and Things done by such Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said County at large, within such City or Town, shall be as valid and effectual in the Law as if the same had been done within the said County at large, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to give Power to the Justices of the Peace for any County at large, not being Jurisdiction for such City or Town, or any Constable or other Officer acting under them, to act or intermeddle in any Matters or Things arising within any such City or Town, in any manner whatsoever.

V. And Whereas it is expedient to give such and the like Powers to Justices of the Peace in Ireland, to impose Fines upon Constables and other Peace and Parish Officers within their respective Jurisdictions, for Neglect of Duty in their respective Offices, or for Inobedience of the Warrants or Orders of such Justices, and also to impose Fines upon Masters of Apprentices for Ill Usage of their Apprentices, and also to make such Provision for the Execution of Warrants of Distress granted by Justices, as are by Law given and made in Great Britain; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Ireland, assembled at any Special or Petty Sessions of the Peace, upon Complaint being made upon Oath before them of any Neglect of Duty, or of any Inobedience of any lawful Warrant or Order of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, by any Constable or other Peace or Parish Officer, or upon Complaint made to such Two or more Justices upon Oath by or on the behalf of any Apprentice to any Trade or Business whatsoever, whether bound Apprentice by any Parish or Township or otherwise (provided that not more than the Sum of Ten Pounds be paid upon the hearing of such Apprentice), against him or her Master or Masters of any Ill Usage of such Apprentice by such Master or Masters (such Constable or other Officer, Master or Masters having been duly summoned to appear and answer such Charge or Complaints), to impose upon Conviction any reasonable Fine or Fines, not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings, upon such Constable or other Officer, Master or Masters respectively, as a Punishment for such Disobedience, Neglect of Duty or Ill Usage, and by Warrants under the Hands and Seals of any Two or more of such Justices assembled at any Special or Petty Sessions as aforesaid, to distress such Fine or Fines, if not paid, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons in offending, rendering the Overplus (if any), after deducting the Amount of such Fine or Fines, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to such Offender or Offenders; and such Fine or Fines which may be imposed upon any such Constable or other Officer as aforesaid, shall be applied and disposed of for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish, Township or Place where the Offender shall respectively reside, at the Discretion of the Justices imposing the same; and such Fine or Fines which may be imposed upon any such Master or Masters shall, at the Discretion of the Justices imposing the same, be either so applied and disposed of as aforesaid, or be otherwise paid and applied to or for the Use and Benefit of such Apprentice, in or towards a Reimbursement or Compensation for the Injury which may have been by him or her sustained by reason rescue of such ill-gale as aforesaid; and if any Person shall be aggrieved, by the Imprehension of such Place or Places as aforesaid, or by any Order or Warrant of Distress for raising and levying the same, or by the Judgment or Determination of the said Justices, or by any Act to be done in the Execution of such Warrant of Distress, such Person or Persons as aforesaid shall and may appeal to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County, County of a City or County of a Town, within which such Person shall reside; of which Appeal Ten Days Notice at the least shall be given; and for want of such Distress such Person or Persons shall be committed to the House of Correction for any Space of time not exceeding Ten Days.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person acting under any such Warrant of Distress as aforesaid, shall be deemed a Trespasser at law by reason of any Irregularity or Insuperiority in such Warrant, or on any Proceedings thereon; but any Person aggrieved by the doing or Execution of such Warrant, may recover the Special Damages thereby by him or her sustained in an Action of Trespass or on the Case, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Ireland.

VII. And Whereas Warrants of Distress granted by Justices of the Peace are in many instances inefficient, by reason of the Goods and Chittels of the Parties against whose such Warrants are granted, being out of the Jurisdiction of the Justice granting the same: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where any Person, Forfeiture, Fine or other Money may, by the Warrant of any Justice or Justices of the Peace in Ireland, be directed to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chittels of any Person or Persons, if sufficient Distress cannot be found within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the Justice, granting such Warrant of Distress, on Oath thereof made by One Witness, before any Justice of the Peace of any other County, County of a City or Town, Town Corporate or Place (such Oath shall be by him certified by Indorsement on such Warrant), such Person, Forfeiture, Fine or other Money, or so much thereof as may not have been before levied or paid, shall and may, by virtue of such Warrant or Indorsement, be raised and levied by the Person or Persons to whom such Warrant of Distress shall have been originally directed, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chittels of such Person or Persons in such other County, County of a City or Town, Town Corporate or Place; and the Money arising by such Distress and Sale shall be applied and disposed of for such Purposes and in like Manner as if sufficient Goods and Chittels of such Person or Persons had been found within the Jurisdiction of the Magistrate originally granting such Warrant; and if no such Distress can be found, such Offender or Offenders shall and may be forthwith proceeded against according to Law: Provided always, that no Justice, who shall interfere any Controversy upon or authorise the Execution of any such Warrant of Distress, which may not have been granted within his Jurisdiction, shall be answerable or accountable for any Irregularity which may have been committed or done in or about the obtaining or granting of such Warrant of Distress.

II. And Whereas it will increase the Revenue of the said Post Office, and accommodate the Public, if Charitable Institutions or Societies shall be permitted to send printed Notices and printed Letters, relating solely to the Business of such Institutions or Societies, by Post undelivered at reduced Rates of Postage: Be it therefore enacted, That all Rates and Duties for the Postage and Conveyance of such printed Notices and printed Letters, sent by the Post in Ireland, payable under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, immediately before the passing of this Act, shall from and after the passing of this Act cease and determine; and that from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for the Postmaster General of Ireland for the time being, and his or their Deputy or Deputies, Servants and Agents, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to demand, have, receive and take, for the Postage and Conveyance of all Notices or Letters, which shall be printed on a single Sheet of Paper, and shall relate solely to the Affairs or Business of any Charitable Institution or Society in Ireland, and which shall be delivered into any Post Office sealed and directed, but without any Seal or Waiver, or other Matter to cloak or falsify the same, and shall be carried, conveyed or sent Post from the General Post Office in Dublin to the several Post Towns in Ireland, or from the several Post Towns in Ireland to the General Post Office in Dublin, or by the Penny Post in the City of Dublin, or any other City or Town in Ireland, according to the Rates following: (that is to say), for the Post and Conveyance of Twelve, or any lesser Number of such Notices or Letters, the Sum of One Penny; for every additional complete Number of Twelve of such Notices or Letters, the further Sum of One Penny; and for any Number of Letters less than Twelve, according One or more complete Set or Sets or Number or Numbers of Twelve, the further Sum of One Penny; which Sum or Postage shall be paid at the Post Office where such Notices or Letters shall be deposited for Conveyance, and previous to the same being dispatched by the Post.

IV. And be it declared and enacted, That the Postmaster or Postmasters General of Ireland, shall cause an Account to be kept from time to time of all Tolls payable on Four wheeled Carriages, conveying or employed to carry any Mail or Bag of Letters in Ireland, at the several and respective Turnpike Gates or Bars erected upon or at the Ends of any Bridges in Ireland through which such Carriages shall pass, and shall from time to time make the Amount of such Tolls to be paid to the Treasurers of the said Bridges or Turnpike Gates or Bars, or other Persons to whom such Tolls are respectively payable, by Four Quarterly Payments, in like manner to all Intents and Purposes as the said Postmaster or Postmasters General are required to do under the Direction of an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for providing in His Majesty's certain Rate and Duties upon Letters and Packets sent by the Post within Ireland, with respect to such Tolls payable at the several and respective Turnpike Gates in Ireland; and that the said Postmaster and Postmasters General of Ireland shall, within Three Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act, pay all Arrears of any such Tolls at any such Bridges as may be due at the time of the passing of this Act; any Usage or Custom to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

V. And Whereas Letters and Packets directed to or from Places in Ireland from or to any Part or Parts • in Great Britain, or beyond the Seas, are now sent to and shipped from the Harbours or Packet Stations of • Mouth near Dublin, and Drogheda near Waterford; and Doubts have arisen whether any Rate of Postage is payable on such Letters between Dublin and Drogheda, and between Waterford and Drogheda: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Letters or Packets directed from any Place in Ireland to any Part or Parts of Great Britain, or beyond the Seas, or received in Ireland from Great Britain, or any Part or Parts beyond the Seas, shall be subject or liable to be charged with or pay any Rate for their Portage and Conveyance to Dublin from Drogheda, or from Dublin to Drogheda, nor to Waterford from Drogheda, or from Waterford to Drogheda; any Construction or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Postmaster General of Ireland for the time being, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to enlarge and extend the Limits of the Penny Post in the City of Dublin, and to appoint Offices to be called Receiving Houses for Penny Post Letters in the said City, or County of the said City, and in any Parts adjacent to the said City and Suburbs, within the Distance of Six Miles from the General Post Office in the said City, and to demand, have, receive and take for the Portage and Conveyance of all Letters and Packets conveyed by such Penny Post, according to such Rates as now or may be payable by Law for Letters conveyed by the said Penny Post not more than Four Miles from the said Post Office, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force at the time of the passing of this Act; and all the Provisions of all such Acts shall extend and be construed to extend to the said Distance of Six Miles, in like manner as the same under any of the said Acts extend to the Distance of Four Miles, and as if the said Distance of Six Miles were mentioned in the said Acts and every of them, instead of the said Distance of Four Miles.

C A P. CIX.

An Act for the further Encouragement and Improvement of the Irish Fisheries. [12th July 1819.]

WHEREAS the Improvement of the Irish Fisheries, and more especially the White Herring Fishery, is an Object of the most essential Importance to the Wealth and Commercial Prosperity, as well as to the Naval Strength of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; for the Attainment of which it is expedient that more effectual Regulations should be made, in order to the enlarging a due and proper Attention to the curing, sorting and packing of such Herrings and Fish; and that the Credit of the Fisheries of the United Kingdom in our Colonies, and in Foreign Parts may be maintained: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That a Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton shall be paid annually out of His Majesty's Revenues under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, to the Owner or Owners of all such decked Vessel or Vessels of not less than Fifteen Tons Burden, as to the Person or Persons being or chartering such Vessel or Vessels, which now or hereafter shall be fitted out from any Part in Ireland, for fishing and curing Fish in the Irish Fisheries, in manner and under the Conditions hereinafter mentioned: Provided always, that no Bounty shall be paid on any such Vessel or Vessels for any greater Number of Tons than Sixty.

II. And be it further enacted, That on each Vessel shall be exhibited to the said Bounty, or any Part thereof, unless such Vessel or Vessels shall be of British or Irish Built, or be a Private Vessel legally commissioned in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty, nor unless such Vessel shall be owned by Subjects having their known and fixed Place of Residence for themselves and Families in Ireland, for Six Months at least previous

I do hereby certify, That I have been on board the Vessel called _____ in Macker, now lying in this Port, and

 • she is in all respects, according to my Judgment and Belief, a sound, well built, well found and proper Vessel
 • to be employed in the said Fisheries, and has also the Quantity of Salt on board (specified in this A.)
 • Disclosed of the above Vessel; viz. _____ in Length,

I do certify, That the Fishing Vessel called The _____ arrived in

And if, notwithstanding her said Register, it shall otherwise appear to the Inspector or Surveyor, or other Officer as aforesaid, that the Articles therein mentioned are not on board, the said Inspector, Surveyor or other Officer, shall report the Matter to the Commissioners of the Fisheries; and such Vessel shall not be entitled to any Bounty for the Fishing Stakes for which she shall have been cleared out.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Vessel shall be entitled to the said Bounty, or any Part thereof, unless upon her Return into any Port of Ireland for her Discharge, the Person intending to claim Bounty by virtue of this Act shall, by himself or his Assigns, make due Entry of all Fish on board such Vessel, in such manner as Entries of imported Goods are made according to Law (for which Entry no Fee shall be paid); and subject to like Provision, in case of Over Entry, as are incurred for short or under Entry of Goods imposed, by any Law or Statute now in force in Ireland; and that the Landowner who, in pursuance of the Warrant of the said Entry, shall discharge the said Fish, shall certify the same to the Collector or Comptroller of such Port; and such Landowner, or such other Officer as shall be for the purpose appointed, under the Provisions of this Act, shall also certify the Condition of such Vessel, and her Lading, and whether the Fish shall have been made up in Bulk or in Barrels, with the Quantity of each, and whether the Fish be well huddled or packed, and certify the same.

or bought by the said Vessel on the Voyage for which such Vessel claims such Bounty, and that the value was loaded well cured in sound merchantable Order in some Port in Ireland; in which Case, out of the remaining Thirty Shillings of such Bounty, the Owner or Master shall receive Six Shillings only per Barrel for every Barrel containing Thirty-two Gallons Eight Wine Measures, whereas good, sound, well cured and merchantable Herrings, gatted with a keefe, shall be packed; and a Bounty of Four Shillings only for every Barrel of good, sound, well cured and merchantable Herrings, Pickards and Mackerel not so gatted; and for every Hundred Weight of well cured dried Lyng, Hake, Haddock, Glaife, Cod or Conger Eel, Four Shillings only of such Bounty as aforesaid: Provided always, that no greater Bounty shall be paid on any Vessel or Vessels than for Sixty Tons, let her Advertisement be what it may; nor shall there be paid on any Vessel a greater Amount of Bounty in the whole than Fifty Shillings per Ton on such Advertisements, including the before mentioned Bounty of Twenty Shillings per Ton.

VIII. Provided always, and it is enacted, That for all such Fish cured and loaded in Half Barrels, there shall be paid and allowed the Bounty aforesaid, in the same Proportion, and under the same Rules, Regulations and Regulations, as is herein enacted with respect to Herrings cured and loaded in Barrels.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries, and they are hereby empowered and directed, to appoint general Places of Residences on any Part of the Coasts of Ireland, for such Vessels as aforesaid, proceeding upon such Fishery, as shall appear to them fitting for such Purpose, and shall give due Notice of the Places so to be appointed.

X. And be it further enacted, That for an Encouragement to all His Majesty's Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, who shall engage in the said Fisheries, there shall be paid out of His Majesty's Revenue under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, a Bounty of Three Pounds per Ton for every Ton of Oil extracted from Whales, and Three Pounds per Ton for every Ton of Oil extracted from other Fish, taken on the Coasts of Ireland and manufactured therein, as an equivalent Bounty on the Fishery on its Importance, as the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries may in their Discretion think fit to appoint; and also a Bounty of Four Pounds for every Hundred Weight of all Fins of Whales, commonly called Whalebone, taken on the Coasts of Ireland, and manufactured therein.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in order to give Employment and Encouragement to the Irishmen Poor residing on the Coasts of Ireland, there shall and may be paid a Bounty of Three Shillings per Barrel, to all Persons residing in Ireland, who shall cure and pack Herrings, Pickards and Mackerel, according to such Rules and Regulations as the said Commissioners of the Fisheries shall make and appoint for that Purpose; and that there shall be also paid and allowed, under the like Rules and Regulations, to such Persons residing as aforesaid, and curing such Fish as aforesaid, a Bounty of Four Shillings per Hundred Weight for all dried Cod, Lyng, Hake, Haddock, Glaife or Conger Eel, taken on the Coasts of Ireland: Provided always, that no such Bounty or Bounties shall be paid on account of any Fish in respect whereof any Part of the aforesaid Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton shall have been paid, or shall be payable or allowable to the Master or Owner of any Vessel or Vessels; and provided also, that the said Bounty of Three Shillings per Barrel on Herrings, Pickards and Mackerel, shall not be paid or payable, unless the Inspector or other Officer to be appointed for that Purpose, shall have previously inspected all such Herrings, Pickards and Mackerel, and branded the Casks containing the same, and shall certify in Writing to the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries, that such Herrings, Pickards and Mackerel are properly cured, packed and made up, either for the Home or Foreign Market.

XII. And for the more regular keeping the Journals of the Proceedings of such Fishing Vessels, be it further enacted, That at the time any Vessel is entered for the said Fisheries, the Collector of the Port or other Officer appointed for that Purpose, under the Provisions of this Act, shall deliver to the Master or Chief Officer of such Vessel a blank Journal Book, in such Form as the said Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries shall direct or appoint, signed by the said Collector or such other Officer, and ruled under differing Heads; in which said Master or some one of the Crew above the Age of Fourteen Years, shall enter an Account of the Proceedings of such Vessel, the Soundings upon the Coast and Fishing Banks, the Quantity of Fish taken by said Vessel, and the Quantity brought, and the times when respectively; and in default of so doing, such Vessel shall forfeit such Part of the Bounty as the magis otherwise here been enacted to, as the said Commissioners of Fisheries shall think fit.

XIII. And for the better ascertaining the Quantity of Herrings taken and brought, be it further enacted, That every Vessel at the time of being entered for the Fisheries, shall have on board Two Half Barrels, each containing between Gallons, with which shall be measured the Herrings taken and brought by her; and the Entry in the Journal of the Quantity of Herrings taken and brought, shall be by the Number of Barrels or Half Barrels, and not by Tubs or Coombs.

XIV. And Whereas the Quantity of Fish is diminished by Methods of Fishing which destroy the Spaw and Fry of Fish: Be it enacted, That no Drag Net or other Sea Net which hath a Mesh of less than Three Inches and a Half from Knot to Knot, shall be made use of in catching any kind of Fish, (except Herrings, Pickards, Sprats, Shrimps and Prawns, and small Shell Fish for Salt,) upon any Parts of the Coasts of Ireland, or within any of the Bays, Harbours, Rivers or Creeks thereof, nor shall any false or double Bottom, Cod or French, or any other Net, though of legal Size, be placed upon or behind the other, in order to take and destroy small Fish; and if any Person or Persons shall make use of any Drag Net or other Sea Net which has a Mesh of less than Three Inches and a Half from Knot to Knot, or catching any kind of Fish (except Herrings, Pickards, Sprats, Shrimps, Prawns and small Shell Fish for Salt) on any Parts of the Sea Coasts of Ireland, or within any of the Bays, Harbours, Rivers or Creeks thereof, shall place any false or double Bottom, Cod or French, or any other Net, though of legal Size, upon or behind any other, in order to take and destroy small shall Fish; such Person or Persons is offending, and being thereof convicted, upon his or their Appointment, or Default after Summons, before One or more Justices or Justices of the Peace of the County, or Inspector of the District where such Person or Persons is offending, hath or have their usual Place of Abode, by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, which Oath such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Inspector, is and are hereby empowered to administer, or by Confession of the Party offending, shall for every such Offence inflict and take such Fine or Fines, which such Justice or Justices are hereby empowered to take and do, and shall also forfeit a Sum not less than Forty Shillings, nor exceeding Ten Pounds, to be levied by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Inspector, before whom such Offender shall be convicted, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Offender, the One Moiety thereof to the Person who shall inform and prosecute for the same, and the other Moiety to go and be disposed of to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where such Offender lives; and is also so sufficient Default or Defaults can or may be had, whereas to levy the said Sum adjudged to be forfeited, then then the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Inspector, shall and may, by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, commit such Person or Persons to the Common Goal of the County or Place where such Offender shall be convicted, there to remain for any time not exceeding Thirty Days, unless such Offender shall sooner pay the Penalty is forfeited, upon Payment whereof he shall be discharged forthwith.

XV. And Whereas Shoals of Herrings are frequently frightened from the Entrance of the Bays and Creeks, by Vessels mooring and shooting their Nets in improper Places, and by laying long Lines for taking of Cod and Ling across the Entrance of Bays and Creeks, and other Irregularities? It is enacted, That as Vessels on the Coast of Ireland shall moor or shoot their Nets in any Place which shall be forbidden by the Inspector or other Officer to be appointed; nor shall any Person boat any Net or any long Line for taking of Cod, Ling and other Fish, or any time or in any Place which shall be forbidden by the said Inspector, or other Person duly authorized for such Purpose under the Provisions of this Act, under a Penalty of Twenty Pounds, to be levied in like manner as the other Penalties by this Act directed are appointed to be levied.

XVI. And he it further enacted, That no Net shall be shot or set for the taking of Herrings on the Day time, under the Penalty of Ten Pounds, to be recovered against the Owners or Owners of such Nets, or of the Vessel from which such Nets shall be shot or set, and to be levied by Distress and Sale of his, her or their Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Inspector or Inspectors of the Fisheries; and if there shall be no Inspector, then by Warrant of a Justice of the Peace for the County wherein the Party or Parties do reside, and before whom the Offence shall be proved by the Confession of the Party accused, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses; which said Penalty, when recovered, shall be applied in such manner and to such Use as the other Penalties heretofore mentioned are to be applied.

XVII. And Whereas, notwithstanding the Laws now in force for the Regulation of the Fisheries of Ireland, by the Multitude of Boats that resort to the different Places of Rescous, many of which shoot their Nets in the Day time, and begin to fish before the Shoals of Herrings, Pichards or Mackerel are landed in the Bays and Creeks where they usually resort for Shelter, there is reason to believe that the Fisheries are much injured, and that a Regulation with regard to the time of commencing the Fishery would be of great Advantage? It is enacted, That in the several Places where Inspectors or other Officers are appointed, and where Orders shall be given for the purpose by the Commissioners of the Irish Fisheries, or any Three of them, who are hereby empowered to do so, no Person shall be at liberty to shoot their Nets, and Notice for such Purpose shall be posted up by the Inspector of the District, under a Penalty of Twenty Pounds, to be levied as other Penalties in this Act directed.

XVIII. And he it further enacted, That any Vessel or Boat which shall be laden at any Port or Place in Ireland with Salt in Bulk or in Barrels, intended to be used in the curing of Herrings, Pichards or Mackerel, in Bulk or in Barrels, such Herrings, Pichards or Mackerel having been taken by the Master and Crew on any Part of the Coast of Great Britain, Ireland or the Isle of Man, or purchased from by the said Master on any Part of the said Coast, from the Crews of other British or Irish Boats by whom the same were taken, shall be deemed and taken to be a Vessel or Boat fitted out for the Irish Herring, Pichard or Mackerel Fishery, within the Meaning of this Act; and where any such Vessel or Boat, having been so fitted out for the Irish Fishery, and having proceeded to any Port of the Coast of Great Britain, Ireland or the Isle of Man, where the Fishing of Herrings, Pichards or Mackerel shall have been carried on, and the Master and Crew whereof shall have there taken or purchased Herrings, Pichards or Mackerel both, and cured the same in Bulk or in Barrels, shall arrive laden therewith in any Port or Place in Ireland, or where any Herrings, Pichards or Mackerel, taken or purchased, and cured as aforesaid, shall have been transhipped out of any such Vessel or Boat into any other Vessel or Boat which shall arrive laden with the said Herrings, Pichards or Mackerel in any Port or Place in Ireland, then and in either of these Cases, all such Herrings, Pichards or Mackerel shall be deemed to have been brought from the Irish Fishery, within the Meaning of this Act.

XIX. And he it further enacted, That if any Fish or Salt, or other Fish in Stores, shall be landed, or shall be unshipped with intent to be landed out of any Vessel or Boat arriving from the Irish Fishery, at any Port or Place where an Officer of the Fishery shall be stationed, without the Presence of such Officer of the Fishery as aforesaid, or shall be landed, or shall be unshipped with intent to be landed at any Port or Place where an Officer of the Fishery shall be stationed, without the Presence of the proper Officer of the Customs, all such Fish or Salt, or other Fishing Stores, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery, or of the Customs or Excise.

XX. And he it further enacted, That the Bounties hereby granted per Barrel on Herrings, Pichards and Mackerel, shall not be paid or allowed for any Herrings, Pichards and Mackerel which shall not have been taken

* III. And Whereas by the said several Acts, Duties amounting to the Sum of Five Pounds are imposed for every Male Person employed in the Capacity of or as a Traveller, where the same Employer or Employers shall keep or employ more than one such Male Person: And Whereas it is necessary in some Trades to employ many Persons to travel from Place to Place on Foot, and it is expedient to relieve their respective Employers from the said Duties for more than Four such Travellers: It is further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, the same Employer or Employers in Partnership together, who shall employ more than Four Male Persons in the Capacity of or as Travellers to travel from Place to Place on Foot, shall still be exempt for every Male Person so employed above the Number of Four, any former Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

*An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the punctual and frequent Payment of the Wages and Pay of certain Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy, and by subsequent Regulations established under His Royal Highness the Prince Regent's Order in Council, certain Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the Navy are permitted to receive Part of their Pay and Allowances by drawing Bills upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, and some are allowed to receive the Whole of their Pay in that manner, though it is still required of them to pass the same Documents and Accounts annually, or on quitting a Ship: And Whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act of the Thirty first of His late Majesty George the Second, Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said recited Act of the Thirty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second as respects the said Allowance of Expenses in the Pound for receiving and paying any Wages, Prize Money, or any other Monies as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be and shall be, to all intents and Purposes, applicable and be applied to the full Amount of the Pay and Allowances receivable by all Commissioned and Warrant Officers of His Majesty's Navy who are by Law allowed to draw Bills upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, and shall not be deemed to be limited and restricted to Monies actually and bona fide passing through the Hands of the said Agents.*

Provision for Service Acts for Payment of the Navy.

Provision for Actions commenced before June 21, 1819.

II. And Whereas Doubts have been entertained whether under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Thirty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, any Commissioned or Warrant Officers, in respect of passing the Accounts of Commissioned and Warrant Officers having annual or other Accounts to pass, beyond the Amount of such Allowance of Expenses in the Pound by the said recited Act authorized to be taken and retained for paying and receiving Pay, Wages, Prize Money, or other Monies as aforesaid: Be it therefore further enacted, That on all Accounts passed previously to this Act it shall and may be deemed lawful to and for Navy Agents to have made the said and customary Charges for passing such Accounts; but that from and after the passing of this Act the said Allowance of Expenses in the Pound for receiving and paying Wages, Pay, Prize Money, or other Monies as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be a full Compensation for all Trouble whatsoever which Navy Agents may incur or be put unto for and in respect of passing the Accounts of any Commissioned or Warrant Officer (except as hereinafter is excepted); and such Allowance of Expenses in the Pound shall be paid and payable to such Navy Agents over and above all Public Fees and Allowances paid by them.

III. And inasmuch as the Accounts of Captains and Purfers, and of Officers acting as Captains and Purfers, are intricate, and occasion much Trouble in the passing thereof: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for Navy Agents employed in receiving the Pay or other Monies of such Officers respectively, to charge, instead of the said Sum of Sixpence in the Pound heretofore allowed to be charged, the Sum of Three Pounds for every Hundred Pounds of the Amount of the Pay of all Captains, and Officers acting as Captains, and 6s. in proportion for any fractional Sum less than a Hundred Pounds; and the Sum of Three Pounds Fifteen Shillings for every Hundred Pounds of the Amount of the Pay, Allowances and Balance Bills of all Purfers, or Officers acting as Purfers, and 6s. in proportion for any fractional Sum less than a Hundred Pounds; and such Allowance of Three Pounds for Captains, and Three Pounds Fifteen Shillings per Centum respectively, shall be deemed to be a full Compensation for all Trouble whatsoever which Navy Agents may incur or be put unto for and in respect of passing the Accounts of such Captains and Purfers, or Officers acting as such respectively; and such respective Allowances shall be paid and payable to such Navy Agents, over and above all Public Fees and Allowances paid by them: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to claim, vary or repeal any Part of the said recited Acts, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force for the better Payment of His Majesty's Navy, as far as the said Acts, any or either of them, relate to inferior Officers and Boatsmen.

IV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect the Plaintiff or Defendant in any Action, Bill, Plea, or Information which shall have been laid out, commenced or prosecuted before the Twenty first Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, or any Plea or Defence thereto, but such Plaintiff or Defendant shall and may be entitled in all Courts of Law and Equity to all the Benefits of the said recited Act of the Thirty first Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, and of every Clause, Matter and Thing contained, in both and the same manner as if this Act had not been made.

[18th July 1819.]

WHEREAS by the Laws now in force all Goods found on board any Ship or Vessel of which no Report hath been made by the Master, are forbidden; and the Masters of Ships or Vessels are liable to certain Penalties for making false Reports of the Cargoes of their Ships or Vessels; And Whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in England and Scotland respectively, should be empowered in Cases where the Masters of Ships or Vessels shall not have made correct Reports of their Cargoes, to permit the same to be amended; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases where any Goods shall have been omitted in such Reports, or shall have been wrongly described, or the Reports shall be incorrect in any other respect, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Three or more of them, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, on Proof by the Oath of the Master or Commander, and Mate or Purser of the Ship or Vessel, and by the Production and Inspection of the original Log Book and Cargo Book of such Ship or Vessel for that Voyage, and Bill or Bills of Lading (if any) of the Goods in question, and other original Documents (if any) relating thereto, to their Satisfaction respectively, and that no Fraud was intended, to permit and allow, by an Order specifying that such Proof, Inspection and Examination have respectively been made to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners, the Masters of the Ships or Vessels to amend and make correct such Reports on Oath, before the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, which Oaths such Officer and Officers so and are hereby authorized and empowered to administer; and such Masters of Ships or Vessels shall be liable to the like Penalties, in case of making a false Amendment to their Reports, as they were for making a false Report on the first instance, to be sued for, prosecuted, recovered and disposed of in like manner as the Penalties to which they were liable in the first Instance.

II. And Whereas it is expedient that the Officers of His Majesty's Customs at the several Outports should have the like Power to permit Reports to be amended in certain Cases: Be it therefore further enacted, That the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at the several Outports shall have the like Power to permit and allow, by an Order made by them in like manner as aforesaid, the Master of any Ship or Vessel who shall have made false or incorrect Reports of their Cargoes, to amend the same on Oath (if they shall be satisfied, made on Oath as aforesaid before them (which Oath they are hereby respectively authorized to administer), to their Satisfaction, and that no Fraud was intended; and such Masters of Ships or Vessels shall be liable to the like Penalties in case of making a false Amendment to their Reports, as they were for making a false Report in the first Instance, to be sued for, prosecuted, recovered and disposed of in like manner as the Penalties to which they were liable in the first Instance: Provided always, that on such Alteration or Amendment of any such Report as aforesaid shall be allowed or made, or shall be of any Validity or Effect, if made after the actual Service of any Goods as aforesaid for not being reported as required by Law, or after the actual Enforcement of any Prosecution against the Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel, for any Penalty incurred by reason of any Goods imported or brought, by such Ship or Vessel into Great Britain, not being included and declared in the original Report of the Cargo of such Ship or Vessel, or not being duly landed according to such Report; any thing herein, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intended As an Act for regulating the Production of Manifests; and for more effectually preventing frauds in Practice in shipping, Stowing and Dismarking, and in the classification and landing of Goods, certain Provisions are made that no Goods entitled to either Drawback, Bounty or Preference, shall be carried or put on board any Ship or Vessel whatsoever for Exportation to Foreign Parts by any Person or Persons whatsoever (except the proper Officers of the Revenue), other than such Person or Persons as shall be authorized for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the like Provisions with respect to Goods which have been stored in Warehouses without Payment of Duties, and to Goods which are prohibited to be worn or sold in this Country, and also stored in Warehouses according to Law: Be it enacted, That no Goods whatever which shall have been stored in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, nor any Goods whatever which are prohibited to be sold or worn in Great Britain, and shall have been carried and put into Warehouses approved of by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs according to Law, shall be carried or put on board any Ship or Vessel whatever, from such Warehouses, for Exportation to Foreign Parts, by any Person or Persons whatsoever (except the proper Officers of the Revenue), other than such Person or Persons as shall be authorized for that Purpose by Law: and under the Hands of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or any Four or more of them for the time being, who are hereby authorized to give the same, and to require such Security as they may deem necessary, by Bond or otherwise, to be given by the Person or Persons to whom they shall grant such Licence, for the actual Delivery of the whole of the Goods on board such Ship or Vessel to the Officer of the Revenue stationed on board, and for the faithful and incorrupt Proceeding in every respect of such Person or Persons in regard to such Goods; which said Persons in to be licensed as aforesaid shall and are hereby required, upon conveying any Goods on board any Ship or Vessel, to give clear and full Information thereof in Writing to the Master or other Person then in charge of such Ship or Vessel, for the better enabling the Master to give Notice as required by the before recited Act, previous to his clearing out with any such Goods as aforesaid; which Licence, when granted by the Commissioners of the Customs, shall not be withdrawn by them, or the Operation under the same in any manner hindered, obstructed or prevented, unless either the Person or Persons to whom such Licence shall have been granted, or some other Person or Persons employed by them, and with his or their Privilege or Consent, shall commit some Act against any Law now made or hereafter to be made to secure the Revenue of Customs or Excise, and shall be convicted thereof, in which Case the said Commissioners shall and are hereby authorized and required to withdraw such Licence.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall and are hereby required to grant such Licence as aforesaid to all and every Person and Persons who is or are now by Law entitled to carry or put on board such Goods, and who shall give such Security as the said Commissioners, at any Time or more of them, shall deem necessary, and to no other Person or Persons whatever.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods entitled to either Drawback, Bounty or Premium, or any Goods which shall have been secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, or any Goods which are prohibited to be sold or worn in Great Britain, and which shall have been carried and put into Warehouses approved of by the Commissioners of Customs according to Law, shall be carried to or put on board any Ship or Vessel for Exportation to Foreign Parts, by any Person or Persons (except the proper Officers of the Revenue), other than such Person or Persons as shall have been so licensed as required by the aforesaid Act and this present Act, then and in such Case the Drawback, Bounty or Premium shall be forfeited and lost; and the Exporter, Shipper, and every Person who shall carry to or put on board any Ship or Vessel bound to Foreign Parts any of the before mentioned Goods, shall severally forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and the same shall and may be paid for, prosecuted and recovered in such Manner, and by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalties incurred for any Offence against the Laws of Customs may now legally be paid for, prosecuted and recovered, one Manner whereof shall be to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform or sue for the same.

VI. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Duties of Customs on Salt, Sugar and Molasses, it is enacted, that nothing in that Act shall extend or be construed to extend to require the Master of any Vessel in or on board of which any Salt or Stone shall be shipped, to be sworn Coastwise by Sea from any Port or Place within this Kingdom, to any other Port or Place within the same, or the Owners or Shippers of any such Salt or Stone, to give any Bond for the due Landing thereof, or to take out any Coast or other Document or account thereof, except such Surrender, Warrant, Permit or Transfer as was required by Law for the Shipping or carrying Coastwise of the like Goods at and immediately before the passing of that Act, any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And Whereas it is expedient that Salt and Stone carried Coastwise should be subject to the like Rules, Regulations and Provisions, as other Goods liable to Duty on being carried Coastwise are by an Act passed in the Thirty second Year of His said Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for the Relief of the Coast Trade of Great Britain: for exempting certain Coast Documents from Stamp Duties: for abolishing the Bond usually called The Hic of Man Bond: and for permitting Cords and Groins brought Coastwise to be transhipped into Lighters, for the purpose of being carried through the Canal from the Forth to the Clyde. VII. And Whereas by the Laws now in force, certain Officers of His Majesty's Customs are empowered to administer Oaths to certain Cases; And Whereas many Cases occur where Proof on Oath is directed by Law to be taken, but the Law has not provided by whom it shall be administered: And Whereas it would tend much to the Dispatch of Business, as well as to Uniformity in the Conduct thereof, if certain Officers of His Majesty's Customs were empowered, in all Cases wherein the Revenue of His Majesty's Customs, or the Trade or Navigation of that Kingdom is concerned, to administer Oaths: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases wherein Proof is required by any Law now in force, or hereafter to be made, or now or shall be necessary for the Satisfaction or Confirmation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in any Matter relating to the Revenue, or to the Trade and Navigation of that Kingdom, the same may be made before the Collector upwards and outwards, the Comptroller or Surveyor of His Majesty's Customs in the Port of London, or in case of their Absence, the Persons sitting for them respectively, or the Collector or Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at any other Port in that Kingdom, or in case of their Absence, the Persons sitting for them respectively, who are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the same.

An Act for the further Protection and Encouragement of Friendly Societies, and for preventing Frauds and Abuses therein. [12th July 1819.]

WHEREAS the habitual Reliance of poor Persons upon Parochial Relief, rather than upon their own Industry, tends to the Moral Deterioration of the People, and to the Accumulation of heavy Burdens upon Parishes; and it is desirable, with a View as well to the Reduction of the Almsbouse made for the Relief of the Poor, as to the Improvement of the Habits of the People, that Encouragement should be afforded to Persons desirous of making Provision for themselves or their Families out of the Fruits of their own Industry: And Whereas by the Contributions of the Savings of many Persons to one Common Fund, the most effectual Provision may be made for the Calamities affecting all the Contributors; and it is therefore desirable to afford further Facilities and additional Security to Persons who may be willing to unite in appropriating small Sums from time to time to the Formation of a Common Fund, for the Purposes aforesaid; and it is desirable to protect such Persons against the Effects of Fraud or Misconduct: And Whereas an Act passed in the Thirty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the Encouragement and Relief of Friendly Societies: And Whereas another Act passed in the Thirty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for more effectually carrying into Execution an Act made in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled: An Act for the Encouragement and Relief of Friendly Societies: and for extending in each of the Powers thereof as relates to the framing Rules and Regulations for the better Management of the Funds of such Societies, and the Appointment of Treasurers to other Institutions of a charitable Nature: And Whereas another Act passed in the Forty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for enabling Friendly Societies intended to be qualified under an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to certify Members made in the Registry of their Rules: And Whereas another Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend an Act made in the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, for the Encouragement and Relief of Friendly Societies: And Whereas the Provisions of those Acts have been found insufficient for their Purpose, and great Abuses have prevailed in many Societies established under the Authority of such Acts: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Society hereafter to be formed in England or Wales, or the Members thereof, shall be entitled to the Benefits, or subject to the Provisions of the said Acts, unless such Society shall have been constituted under the Authority and according to the Provisions of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That when any Number of Persons in England or Wales shall intend to form, under the Authority of this Act, a Friendly Society or Institution, whereby it is intended to provide by Contribution, on the Principle of mutual Insurance, for the Maintenance or Alliance of the Contributors thereto, their Wives or Children, in Sickness, Infancy, advanced Age, Widowhood, or any other mutual State or Contingency, wherein the Occurrence is subject to the Calculation by way of Average, it shall be lawful for such Persons to make Application by Memorial signed as hereafter mentioned to the Justices appointed in the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, in and for the County, Riding or Place of separate Jurisdiction, wherein such Society is about to be established, for a Confirmation and Approval of the Rules of such intended Institution, and of the Tables of Payments and Allowances to be adopted thereat; and that if such Justices, or any Committee by them appointed, consisting of not less than Three Justices (of whom Two shall be a Quorum) shall, after due Examination thereof, be satisfied that the Contributions for which it is intended to provide, whether specifically

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments which shall have been acquired by the Commissioners under the last recited Act and this Act, whether by Gift or otherwise, shall happen to remain unconsecrated at the End of the Term of Ten Years therein contained, or at any other Determination of any Commission granted by His Majesty under the last recited Act or this Act, such unconsecrated Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments shall be immediately vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to be applied to the Uses, Intent and Purposes for which they were acquired, under the Direction of His Majesty in Council; unless or until any other Provision respecting the same shall be made by Authority of Parliament.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Piece or Parcel of Land or Ground which shall, under the Provisions of this Act, be added to any existing Churchyard or Burial Ground, or be appropriated and set apart as and for a new Burial Ground, shall be, as soon as conveniently may be, consecrated for the Burial of the Dead, according to the Usage of the United Church of England and Ireland and shall for ever thereafter be used as and for an additional Burial Ground; and the Freehold of the Land which shall be so consecrated, shall from and after the Consecration thereof vest in the Parson or Parsons in whom the Freehold of the ancient Churchyard or Burial Ground of any such Parish or Chapelry where the same may be situated, shall from time to time be vested.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when any Parish shall be desirous of extending and increasing the Accommodation in the Parish Church, and it shall be found necessary or expedient, to that end to take down the existing Church and to rebuild the same on the same Site, or on a more convenient Site, it shall and may be lawful for the Churchwardens of any such Parish, with the Consent of the Vestry, or Persons possessing the Powers of Vestry, and with the Consent also of the Ordinary, Patron, Incumbent and Lay Representative, if any such there be, to take down such existing Church, and to rebuild the same upon the same or upon a new Site; and the said Churchwardens are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow and raise, upon the Credit of the Church Rates, or any Rates made under the said recited Act or this Act, of any such Parish, such Sums or Sums of Money as shall be necessary for defraying the Expenses or any Part of the Expenses of the taking down and rebuilding such Church, and to make Rates for the Payment of the Interest of such Sums or Sums of Money so to be borrowed and raised, and for providing a Fund, of not less than the Amount of the Interest of the Sums advanced, for the Redemption of the Principal thereof, or for repaying such Principal in such manner, and at such times, and in such Proportions as shall be agreed upon with the Persons advancing any such Money: Provided always, that no Church shall be so taken down and rebuilt, by means of any Rates upon any Parish, if such Properties of Dilectas are in the Act specified in relation to any Application to build or to enlarge any Church or Chapel, either wholly or in part, by means of Rates, are engaged in Writing in manner directed by this Act; and such Church, when consecrated, shall be to all Intent and Purposes the Parish Church of such Parish, for the Celebration of Divine Offices, and the Solemnization of Marriages, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England: Provided always, that One Half of the additional Accommodation, which shall be obtained by the rebuilding such Church, shall be set apart for free and open Seatings: And provided also, that all Persons enjoying any Pews or Seats within such Church, so to be taken down in virtue of any Faculty or Prefeignment, shall have a Pew or Pews, Seating or Seatings, as near as may be in the same Situation, and of like Dimension, allotted and set apart for them in such new Church; and that all Tomb Stones, Monuments and Monumental Inscriptions, in such Church so to be taken down, shall be carefully preserved by the Churchwardens, and when the said Church shall be rebuilt, on the same or a more convenient Site, the said Tomb Stones, Monuments and Monumental Inscriptions shall be set up by the said Churchwardens, at the Charge of the Parishes, in such New Church, as near as Circumstances will admit, in the Situations from whence they were removed in the said Church so to be taken down.

XII. And Whereas particular and special Circumstances may in certain Cases render it necessary, for the more effectual carrying into Execution the beneficial purposes of this Act, in certain Parishes, Divisions of Parishes, or Extra parished Places, that particular Acts of Parliament should be passed for such Parishes, Divisions and Places; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in any such Case in which they shall deem it proper, to pay or advance Money for the Payment of any Fee which may become due and be payable in either House of Parliament in respect of the passing of any such Act or Acts of Parliament; and that such Fees may be paid out of any Money in the Hands of the Commissioners, arising out of any Exchange Bills under the Provisions of this Act; and that such Acts shall in all other respects be considered as Public Acts.

Twenty thousand Pounds, the further Sum of Two hundred and twenty thousand Pounds has at sundry times been since granted, in further Execution of the said Act; by means of which many useful Roads and Bridges have been made and completed, under several Contracts and Agreements entered into according to the Provisions and Regulations of the said Act: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for maintaining and keeping in Repair certain Roads and Bridges made in Scotland for the purpose of Military Communication, and for making more effectual Provision for maintaining and repairing Roads made and Bridges built in Scotland, under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to amend and explain the said last recited Act, which Two Acts require to be amended; and it is expedient that the Provisions thereof should be consolidated in one Act: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Two recited Acts, passed in the Fifty fourth and Fifty fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and this Act shall be in force and be executed in like thereof.

II. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners appointed in and by virtue of the Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for the purposes of this Act, together with the Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal of Scotland, and the First Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues in England, who are hereby appointed Commissioners for carrying this Act, and also the before mentioned Act, into execution; any Three of which Commissioners shall constitute a Quorum, of which One of the Commissioners appointed by virtue of the said Act shall always be One; and at all Meetings of the Commissioners, which Meetings shall be held in London or Westminster, the Chairman shall have the casting Vote in case of an Equality of Votes.

III. And Whereas it is expedient that the Maintenance and Repair of the before mentioned Military Roads and Bridges, and also of the Roads and Bridges made under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges, should be placed under the Direction and Management of the Commissioners hereby appointed: Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby empowered to appoint and employ as Inspectors of such Roads and Bridges in Scotland as have been made wholly or in part at the public Expence, and such other Superintendents or Overseers of Roads and other Officers as they shall see fit; and to pay and allow to each and every of them such Sum or Sums of Money annually or otherwise as the said Commissioners shall think proper, in Compensation of their Services, or in Reimbursement of any Expences incurred by them, or any of them, in Execution of this Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Military Roads and Bridges, and also the Roads and Bridges made and completed pursuant to the said recited Act, passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and also that Part of the Great North Road extending from the Confines of Seawayshire to the Town of Stapwood, and also a Road running off from the Great North Road at the Newer Deer Park, and extending to the Town of Fife, shall be maintained and kept in Repair as follows; that is to say, a certain Proportion, being One Fourth Part of the Expence necessary to maintain and keep in Repair such Roads and Bridges (exclusive of the Allowances to the Inspectors and other Officers appointed by the Commissioners, which Allowances shall be wholly defrayed at the Expence of the Public) shall be paid and defrayed out of the Monies imparked into the Hands of the Commissioners by the Baron of the Exchequer in Scotland, as hereinafter directed; and the Remainder of the Expence of maintaining and keeping in Repair such Roads and Bridges, shall be paid and defrayed by the County or Counties in which the same shall be situated, in the manner hereinafter directed: Provided always, that no Bridge erected pursuant to the said recited Act, and accidentally destroyed, shall be again erected or rebuilt by virtue of this Act, unless the same shall have been included in the Contract entered into for making the Road of which such Bridge forms a Part; or unless the same shall be again erected or rebuilt with the Consent of the said Commissioners, and also of the Justices of the County or Counties in which such Bridge may be situated; such Consent to be given at some Annual Meeting for the Abatement of the Land Tax, or at some Michaelmas Head Court, or at some Special Adjournment of such Meeting or Head Court.

V. And be it further enacted, That where any Bridge directed to be maintained and kept in Repair by virtue of this Act shall be situated partly in one County and partly in another, every such Bridge shall be maintained and kept in Repair in the manner directed by this Act, at the joint Expence of such Counties, and the Allowances hereinafter directed to be made shall be imposed accordingly; unless any such Bridge shall have been built at the Expence of the Public, and of one of such Counties exclusively, in which Case that County only shall be chargeable and charged with a Proportion of the Expence of maintaining such Bridge in Repair according to the Provisions of this Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall annually, or oftener if need be, direct Estimates to be prepared of the Expence requisite for the Repair of the Roads and Bridges placed under their Direction and Management by virtue of this Act, and they are hereby authorised to employ proper Persons (under Contract or otherwise) for the Repair of the same; the Expence arising in consequence of so doing, to be defrayed in the first Instance, and by way of Advance, wholly out of the Monies to be imparked into the Hands of the Commissioners by the Baron of the Exchequer.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Road or Portion of Road made for the purpose of Military Communication in Scotland, shall be maintained and kept in Repair in the manner directed by this Act, nor shall the Road from the Newer Deer Park to Tain be maintained and kept in Repair in the manner directed by this Act, unless the Heritors of the County in which any such Road or Portion of Road is situated, at some Annual Meeting for the Affairs of the Land Tax, or at some Ad hoc Head Court, or at some Special Adjournment of such Meeting or Head Court, shall have already made Application to that Effect to the Commissioners appointed by and under the heretofore recited Acts, or shall hereafter make such Application to the Commissioners appointed by and under this Act, at the first time undertaking to conform to the Provisions of the same, which Undertaking shall be obligatory upon the Heritors of such County; whereupon the said Commissioners shall determine whether it is expedient and proper to consent to such Application, and such Consent (if obtained), together with the previous Application and Undertaking, shall be notified by the Commissioners of the County, in the Newspapers usually circulated in the Highlands of Scotland; after which the Road or Portion of Road respecting which such Application shall have been made shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this Act: Provided nevertheless, that if any Person or Persons whatsoever, jointly or severally, shall make Application to the Commissioners, stating that such Person or Persons are willing to give and will find Security to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, to pay Three fourth Parts of the Expense necessary for the Maintenance and Repair of any Road or Portion of Road made for the purpose of Military Communication (or of the Road heretofore mentioned, extending from the Newer Deer Park to Tain), and to conform to the Provisions of this Act, in so far as the same shall be applicable to the Circumstances of the Case, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners thereupon to determine, whether it is expedient or proper to consent to such Application; and if the said Commissioners shall consent to such Application, and such Security shall be found to their Satisfaction, such Road or Portion of Road shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this Act accordingly.

VIII. And in order to enable the Commissioners to defray a Proportion, being One Fourth Part of the Expense of maintaining and keeping in Repair the Roads and Bridges which are directed to be maintained and kept in Repair by virtue of this Act: be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, and they are hereby required, upon the Application of the Commissioners appointed by this Act, from time to time to issue their Warrants or Warrants to the Receiver General and Paymaster of Scotland, for Payment out of any Public Money then in his Hands of any Sum or Sums of Money specified therein, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, in the present Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to any Person duly authorised by the Commissioners to receive the same, for the purposes of this Act; and a like Sum of Five thousand Pounds in every subsequent Year, to be accounted for by him in such manner as the said Barons shall from time to time think fit to order and direct; such Person also giving good and sufficient Security to the Satisfaction of the said Barons for such Moneys, and for any other Money which may come into his Hands in consequence of this Act.

IX. And in order to raise the other Proportion, being Three fourths of the Money to be expended, be it enacted, That Assessments shall be made by the Commissioners of Supply in the manner herein directed; that is to say, the Comers of every County Meeting, at the Annual Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply which shall take place for the Assessment of the Land Tax in the Spring of every Year, shall lay before the Commissioners of Supply a Copy of this Act, together with an Account of the Expenditure incurred by reason of this Act, and chargeable to such County, for One Year, up to the First Day of January preceding such Meeting, such Account to be certified upon Oath and transmitted to the Comers by the Inspector of Roads and Bridges in Scotland, or by the Agent of the Commissioners, at least Twenty Days previous to the Twenty sixth Day of April in each Year; and the Commissioners of Supply for the County of Lincolnshire shall thereupon make an Assessment upon each and every Parsonage, Life Rector, or proper Wallower of Land, enjoying the Dominions and thereof (according to the Assent of their respective Rector and Parson, as assented to the Property Tax in the Year ending the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, under Schedule A. of an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty during the present War, and until the Sixth Day of April next after the Ratification of a definitive Treaty of Peace, further additional Rates and Duties in Great Britain on the Rates and Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, and for repealing an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for repealing certain Parts of an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, for granting a Contribution to the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, and to consolidate and render more effectual the Provisions for collecting the said Duties); but such Sum or Sums of Money as shall in the whole repay the Money advanced on behalf of the Heritors of such County, for the purposes of this Act, which Sum shall be paid over to the Commissioners or their Agent at Edinburgh, from time to time, as the same may have been collected and levied by the Collector, in Payment of Three fourths of the Expense of the Repair of the Roads and Bridges of the said County during the preceding Year; and the Commissioners of Supply for the other Counties, wherein are lease any of the before mentioned Roads or Bridges, shall order and direct such Sum of Money as shall in the whole repay the Money advanced on behalf of the Heritors of the respective Counties, to be raised and levied and paid in the same manner as during the last Two Years; and in case any other County shall be or shall hereafter become liable to repay any Sum of Money so advanced, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Supply of such County, at any Meeting which shall be held in any such County for this special purpose, to order and direct the way and manner in which such Assessment shall and may be made and levied in such County, in each and every Year thereafter, either separately or along with any other Assessment in such County; and a Copy of the Order thereupon to be made, signed by the Preses of such Meeting, shall be forthwith transmitted to the Clerk of the Commissioners of Supply of such County, and the same shall be laid by the Clerk of Supply before the First Meeting of the Commissioners

XI. And be it enacted, That every Royal Burgh and Burgh of Regality shall be allowed with the County in which it is situated, for the purposes of this Act; and that in making Assessments, regard shall be had to an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for affording the Proprietors of Lands in the County of Bute, and each Part of the Counties of Carmarthen and Water in to in the said County of Bute, towards the Expense of making and supporting such Roads and Bridges therein as shall be approved of by the Commissioners appointed by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, for making Roads and building Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland; also to an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for affording the Proprietors of Lands in the County of Forfarshire towards the Expense of making and supporting such Roads and Bridges therein as shall be approved of by the Commissioners appointed by an Act of the last Session of Parliament for making Roads and building Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland*; and also to an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for continuing, altering and enlarging the Powers of so much of an Act of His present Majesty, as relates to making offshoots the Statute Labour in the Shire of Forfarshire, and keeping a Contribution of Money in the shire thereof, and otherwise regulating, making and repairing Highways and Bridges in the said Shire*; and all Purposes and Parts of Purposes and Places and Limits and Estates mentioned in the said Three last mentioned Acts, shall be allowed for the purposes of this Act, in the same manner that such Purposes, Parts of Purposes, Places, Limits and Estates are directed to be allowed for the purposes of the said Three last mentioned Acts.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Supply of any County, at the Annual Meeting at which they assemble to assess the Land Tax, to appoint a Surveyor, Clerk or Clocks, and such other Officers as they shall think necessary for the due Execution of this Act, with such Salaries or Allowances payable out of the County Assessment, as such Commissioners of Supply shall think fit; and from time to time to remove such Officers, or any of them, as they shall see Cause, and appoint others, in Cases of Removal, Resignation or Death.

XIII. Provided further, and be it enacted, That when by any Act or Acts of Parliament already made or to be made, any Tolls or Duties shall be applicable, and where any Contributions for Statute Labour shall have been allocated or appropriated to the Repair of any Road or Bridge made or built pursuant to the last recited Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or to any Road made for the purposes of Military Communication, all Monies arising from such Tolls and Duties, or such Contributions, shall and may be applied in the manner in which such Monies are directed to be applied by any such Act or Acts respectively; and such Monies shall be applied in part Payment of the Proportion of the Expense of such Repairs as is not to be borne by the said Commissioners; and in making any Assessment pursuant to this Act, regard shall be had to all such Monies as are or may be applicable to the Maintenance and Repair of any Road or Bridge for which any such Assessment is made.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if the Commissioners of Supply assembled at any Annual Meeting at which they assemble to assess the Land Tax, shall fail or neglect to make an Assessment in the manner directed by this Act, or if no Meeting shall have been held before which the Assessment of the Expenditure incurred by virtue of this Act, and chargeable to such County, shall have been laid by the Governor in the manner directed by this Act, then the Commissioners appointed by this Act shall and they are hereby authorized to direct His Majesty's Advocates General for Scotland, or to employ any other Person to indicate the necessary Process for compelling the said Commissioners of Supply to raise and pay over to the said Commissioners appointed by this Act, the Monies which shall be or become due to them under the Provisions of this Act.

XV. And be it enacted, That every Assessment made pursuant to this Act shall be levied and recovered by the Collectors of the Land Tax of the County within which it shall have been made, in the same manner as the Land Tax is or may be levied and recovered, and at such time or times as such Commissioners of Supply shall direct, within Six Months after the Assessment shall have been made; and such and the like Rewards, Powers, Privileges and Forfeitures are hereby given for the Payment and Recovery of every such Assessment, as are given or may be applied and enforced for the Payment and Recovery of the Land Tax: Provided always, that every such Collector shall give Security for his faithful and true accounting for and paying all Monies to be received by him pursuant to this Act, in the same manner that such Collector gives Security for his faithful and true accounting for and paying all Sums of Money received by him as Collector of the Land Tax.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any Collector of the Land Tax shall fail or neglect to levy such Assessment, or any Part of such Assessment, within Six Months as aforesaid, every such Collector shall

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners appointed by this Act, and they are hereby empowered from time to time to make such Rules and Regulations, and to give such Orders and Directions as they may think proper for the more efficient Maintenance and Repair of the Roads and Bridges hereby intended to be maintained and repaired; provided that such Rules and Regulations, Orders and Directions, shall not be inconsistent with the Laws of Scotland, or with the Provisions of this Act, and shall be notified to the Parson or Parsons required to concur to the same.
